

HAPPENINGS OF NORTH SCRANTON

FUNERAL OF THE LATE JOSEPH WILLIAMS.

Services at the Home of His Parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas T. Williams, on Church avenue—Funerals of John Duffy and Owen Moran, Christmas Services in Two of the Churches—"Passion Slave" to Be Produced Today at the Auditorium by Amateurs.

The funeral of Joseph Williams, who quietly passed away last Thursday evening, was held yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas T. Williams, of Church avenue. The services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Clymer pastor of the North Main Avenue Christian church, of which the deceased was a member. Interment was made in Forest Hill cemetery.

The funeral of Joseph Williams, who quietly passed away last Thursday evening, was held yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas T. Williams, of Church avenue. The services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Clymer pastor of the North Main Avenue Christian church, of which the deceased was a member. Interment was made in Forest Hill cemetery.

The funeral of Joseph Williams, who quietly passed away last Thursday evening, was held yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas T. Williams, of Church avenue. The services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Clymer pastor of the North Main Avenue Christian church, of which the deceased was a member. Interment was made in Forest Hill cemetery.

OTHER FUNERALS.

Yesterday afternoon the funeral of John Duffy took place from his late home on Keyser avenue. The remains were conveyed to the Holy Rosary church, where services were conducted by the Rev. J. J. O'Toole. A number of veterans of the late war attended in a body and accorded a military burial. Interment was made in the Cathedral cemetery alongside his brother Patrick, who was buried last Thursday.

The funeral of Owen Moran was held yesterday afternoon from his home on Oak street. Services for the repose of the soul were conducted in the Holy Rosary church. Interment was made in the Cathedral cemetery.

CHRISTMAS SERVICES.

Last evening all the churches in this section conducted special Christmas services. At the Providence Methodist Episcopal church solos were delightfully rendered by Mrs. J. H. Cousins and John T. Evans. The choir was in charge of Prof. Hayden Cousins. Miss Belle Green presided at the organ and Mr. Willard Benjamin was violinist.

THE CHORUS OF THE PROVIDENCE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, UNDER THE LEADERSHIP OF PROF. C. F. WHITTEMORE, HAS BEEN SECURED PURPOSELY FOR THIS PRODUCTION.

The following is the cast of characters: Manuel De Foe, P. J. Dougherty; Ferdinand Shepley, P. J. Caffrey; General Bisco, J. J. Moran; Major Shortleeve, P. J. McGuire; Butterworth Goleightly, D. J. Evans; Walter Busco, Charles H. Moran; warden and policeman, Patrick Foley; Mamie Briscoe, Helen Duggan; Patti, Nellie Kelly; Clotilda De John, Katherine Leany.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Mrs. J. N. Kennedy, of Thompson street, is visiting friends in Greenfield. Fred Mayo, of Henwood's drug store, is spending his Christmas vacation in Pittston with his parents.

Ralph Meritt, of Northumberland, was the guest of Church avenue relatives yesterday.

M. J. Costello, of Holy Cross college, is spending his vacation with his parents on West Market street.

THE BAPTIST CHURCHES.

The congregations of the First English and Welsh Baptist churches held union services at 6 o'clock last evening in the First Welsh Baptist church. The united choirs of both churches rendered the sacred cantata, "Light of Life," under the direction of Chorister William Evans, which was a splendid rendition of the work. The solo parts were sustained by Thomas G. Williams, E. E. Lord, John Evans, Miss Via Jones, Mrs. Thomas James and Mrs. Arthur Banning. A single and double quartet rendered "The Babe in the Manger," and the chorists rendered parts of the composition. The rendition was superb and was listened to by a large audience.

THE BAPTIST CHURCHES.

The congregations of the First English and Welsh Baptist churches held union services at 6 o'clock last evening in the First Welsh Baptist church. The united choirs of both churches rendered the sacred cantata, "Light of Life," under the direction of Chorister William Evans, which was a splendid rendition of the work. The solo parts were sustained by Thomas G. Williams, E. E. Lord, John Evans, Miss Via Jones, Mrs. Thomas James and Mrs. Arthur Banning. A single and double quartet rendered "The Babe in the Manger," and the chorists rendered parts of the composition. The rendition was superb and was listened to by a large audience.

THE BAPTIST CHURCHES.

The congregations of the First English and Welsh Baptist churches held union services at 6 o'clock last evening in the First Welsh Baptist church. The united choirs of both churches rendered the sacred cantata, "Light of Life," under the direction of Chorister William Evans, which was a splendid rendition of the work. The solo parts were sustained by Thomas G. Williams, E. E. Lord, John Evans, Miss Via Jones, Mrs. Thomas James and Mrs. Arthur Banning. A single and double quartet rendered "The Babe in the Manger," and the chorists rendered parts of the composition. The rendition was superb and was listened to by a large audience.

THE BAPTIST CHURCHES.

The congregations of the First English and Welsh Baptist churches held union services at 6 o'clock last evening in the First Welsh Baptist church. The united choirs of both churches rendered the sacred cantata, "Light of Life," under the direction of Chorister William Evans, which was a splendid rendition of the work. The solo parts were sustained by Thomas G. Williams, E. E. Lord, John Evans, Miss Via Jones, Mrs. Thomas James and Mrs. Arthur Banning. A single and double quartet rendered "The Babe in the Manger," and the chorists rendered parts of the composition. The rendition was superb and was listened to by a large audience.

THE BAPTIST CHURCHES.

The congregations of the First English and Welsh Baptist churches held union services at 6 o'clock last evening in the First Welsh Baptist church. The united choirs of both churches rendered the sacred cantata, "Light of Life," under the direction of Chorister William Evans, which was a splendid rendition of the work. The solo parts were sustained by Thomas G. Williams, E. E. Lord, John Evans, Miss Via Jones, Mrs. Thomas James and Mrs. Arthur Banning. A single and double quartet rendered "The Babe in the Manger," and the chorists rendered parts of the composition. The rendition was superb and was listened to by a large audience.

THE BAPTIST CHURCHES.

The congregations of the First English and Welsh Baptist churches held union services at 6 o'clock last evening in the First Welsh Baptist church. The united choirs of both churches rendered the sacred cantata, "Light of Life," under the direction of Chorister William Evans, which was a splendid rendition of the work. The solo parts were sustained by Thomas G. Williams, E. E. Lord, John Evans, Miss Via Jones, Mrs. Thomas James and Mrs. Arthur Banning. A single and double quartet rendered "The Babe in the Manger," and the chorists rendered parts of the composition. The rendition was superb and was listened to by a large audience.

THE BAPTIST CHURCHES.

The congregations of the First English and Welsh Baptist churches held union services at 6 o'clock last evening in the First Welsh Baptist church. The united choirs of both churches rendered the sacred cantata, "Light of Life," under the direction of Chorister William Evans, which was a splendid rendition of the work. The solo parts were sustained by Thomas G. Williams, E. E. Lord, John Evans, Miss Via Jones, Mrs. Thomas James and Mrs. Arthur Banning. A single and double quartet rendered "The Babe in the Manger," and the chorists rendered parts of the composition. The rendition was superb and was listened to by a large audience.

THE BAPTIST CHURCHES.

The congregations of the First English and Welsh Baptist churches held union services at 6 o'clock last evening in the First Welsh Baptist church. The united choirs of both churches rendered the sacred cantata, "Light of Life," under the direction of Chorister William Evans, which was a splendid rendition of the work. The solo parts were sustained by Thomas G. Williams, E. E. Lord, John Evans, Miss Via Jones, Mrs. Thomas James and Mrs. Arthur Banning. A single and double quartet rendered "The Babe in the Manger," and the chorists rendered parts of the composition. The rendition was superb and was listened to by a large audience.

THE BAPTIST CHURCHES.

The congregations of the First English and Welsh Baptist churches held union services at 6 o'clock last evening in the First Welsh Baptist church. The united choirs of both churches rendered the sacred cantata, "Light of Life," under the direction of Chorister William Evans, which was a splendid rendition of the work. The solo parts were sustained by Thomas G. Williams, E. E. Lord, John Evans, Miss Via Jones, Mrs. Thomas James and Mrs. Arthur Banning. A single and double quartet rendered "The Babe in the Manger," and the chorists rendered parts of the composition. The rendition was superb and was listened to by a large audience.

THE BAPTIST CHURCHES.

The congregations of the First English and Welsh Baptist churches held union services at 6 o'clock last evening in the First Welsh Baptist church. The united choirs of both churches rendered the sacred cantata, "Light of Life," under the direction of Chorister William Evans, which was a splendid rendition of the work. The solo parts were sustained by Thomas G. Williams, E. E. Lord, John Evans, Miss Via Jones, Mrs. Thomas James and Mrs. Arthur Banning. A single and double quartet rendered "The Babe in the Manger," and the chorists rendered parts of the composition. The rendition was superb and was listened to by a large audience.

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

CHRISTMAS EXERCISES IN VARIOUS CHURCHES.

Special Music Rendered by the Choirs and Appropriate Sermons Delivered by the Pastors—Exciting Runaway on Main Avenue—Numerous Events Scheduled for Today. Prize Drawing at Clarke Bros. Funerals of Four Children—Small Paragraphs of General Interest.

Special Christmas services were held in all the West Scranton churches yesterday, and although the attendance at the morning services was marred somewhat by the inclement weather, much interest was manifested in the varied programmes presented.

At the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church, both morning and evening, Chorister W. W. Jones offered an exceptionally well-prepared service. The choir sang several anthems, and the Simpson male quartet rendered "A Savior's Born," with fine effect. The soloists were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Abrams, Miss Jessie Polhamus, David Abraham, Helen Thomas, Anna Jones, Harry Wrigley, Miss Eva Kittle and William McEwen. The boys' choir, led by Walter Davis, organist, assisted materially in the service. Rev. J. B. Sweet, the pastor, made remarks appropriate to the occasion.

AN EXCITING RUNAWAY.

A team of horses owned by Undertaker M. F. Wymbs, and driven by Joseph McCabe, ran away yesterday morning and caused great excitement on Main avenue. The team started near Clarke Brothers' stores and ran down below Jackson street, suddenly turning and starting towards the stable.

CLARKE BROS.' DRAWING.

The generosity of Clarke Bros., the well-known merchants, may be fully appreciated when it is known that to-day they are giving away, free of cost, grand Christmas prizes to the children who are fortunate enough to hold the winning coupons. During the past week every child who visited the store in company with their parents received a chance on the prizes.

FOUR CHILDREN BURIED.

Elsie, the 4-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Harris, of 366 Evans street, and Ruth, the 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Greame, of 325 North Rebecca avenue, were buried yesterday in the Washburn street cemetery Saturday afternoon, owing to the contagious disease which caused death.

JACKSON STREET CHURCH.

Prof. Lewis Davis, who directs the choir of the Jackson Street Baptist church, arranged a very suitable programme for the morning and evening services yesterday. In addition to the anthems sung by the choir, Edwin Bowen, the tenor soloist, sang two numbers, "Lullaby" and "Swing Song," and sang a duet, "Glorious Land," with much effectiveness. Rev. De Gruchy preached a typical Christmas sermon in the morning and made a short address in the evening.

Rev. A. L. Rainer, of St. Mark's Lutheran church, delivered two excellent sermons yesterday afternoon in the Cathedral cemetery. The first was on "God's Glory" and "The Prophecy of Zacharias." Special music was rendered by the choir under the direction of Mrs. Smead Cross and Miss Martha Evans. The offertory solo, "Glorious Land," was sung last evening by Joseph Phillips.

NOTES AND PERSONALS.

Samuel McKeever, of Whiting, West Virginia, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Charles Connolly, of Jackson street. Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Blessecker, of Academy street, are entertaining the former's father, August Blessecker, of Mt. Pocono.

OTHER SERVICES.

Special music under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sampson was sung at the Sumner Avenue Presbyterian church last evening, and Philip H. Warren rendered a solo. Rev. L. R. Foster, the pastor, was in charge of the service.

CHRISTMAS DAY EVENTS.

A Christmas cantata will be given by the Sabbath school pupils of the Plymouth Congregational church this evening, under the direction of Miss Edna Evans. Thomas H. Roberts and Evan H. Davis.

THE BAPTIST CHURCHES.

The congregations of the First English and Welsh Baptist churches held union services at 6 o'clock last evening in the First Welsh Baptist church. The united choirs of both churches rendered the sacred cantata, "Light of Life," under the direction of Chorister William Evans, which was a splendid rendition of the work. The solo parts were sustained by Thomas G. Williams, E. E. Lord, John Evans, Miss Via Jones, Mrs. Thomas James and Mrs. Arthur Banning. A single and double quartet rendered "The Babe in the Manger," and the chorists rendered parts of the composition. The rendition was superb and was listened to by a large audience.

THE BAPTIST CHURCHES.

The congregations of the First English and Welsh Baptist churches held union services at 6 o'clock last evening in the First Welsh Baptist church. The united choirs of both churches rendered the sacred cantata, "Light of Life," under the direction of Chorister William Evans, which was a splendid rendition of the work. The solo parts were sustained by Thomas G. Williams, E. E. Lord, John Evans, Miss Via Jones, Mrs. Thomas James and Mrs. Arthur Banning. A single and double quartet rendered "The Babe in the Manger," and the chorists rendered parts of the composition. The rendition was superb and was listened to by a large audience.

THE BAPTIST CHURCHES.

The congregations of the First English and Welsh Baptist churches held union services at 6 o'clock last evening in the First Welsh Baptist church. The united choirs of both churches rendered the sacred cantata, "Light of Life," under the direction of Chorister William Evans, which was a splendid rendition of the work. The solo parts were sustained by Thomas G. Williams, E. E. Lord, John Evans, Miss Via Jones, Mrs. Thomas James and Mrs. Arthur Banning. A single and double quartet rendered "The Babe in the Manger," and the chorists rendered parts of the composition. The rendition was superb and was listened to by a large audience.

GATHERED IN SOUTH SCRANTON

CHRISTMAS OBSERVANCE AT ST. PAUL'S CHURCH.

Sunday School Exercises Conducted Last Night—Funeral of Daniel Maurer Held Yesterday and Largely Attended—Henry Weaver Run Down by a Horse—Twenty-fifth Wedding Anniversary Celebrated. Other News Notes and Personal Mention.

Special Christmas services were conducted last evening in St. Paul's Evangelical church by the Sunday school. Rev. Bailhorn, pastor of the church, preached an appropriate Christmas sermon and the programme was rendered under the direction of the organist, Edward Kroil. The church was well-filled and a general spirit of Christmas goodwill prevailed. The following is the programme rendered:

Organ selection.....Prof. Kroil Address.....Rev. Bailhorn Singing.....Congregation Prayer.....Rev. Bailhorn Bible text, Luke, 2:1-4.

RUN DOWN BY A HORSE.

Henry Weaver, of the Sanderson bill section, had a narrow escape from serious injury yesterday morning. He was walking along Cedar avenue when the wind blew his hat from his head and carried it out into the street, and in front of a passing wagon. In attempting to retrieve his headgear, Mr. Weaver was thrown to the ground by the horse and trampled upon.

A PLEASANT EVENT.

Twenty-five years ago last Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Adam Vockroth, of Pittston avenue, became man and wife, and the event was celebrated in fitting style on Saturday evening.

TOLD IN BRIEF.

The Welcome dancing class will conduct a social at Snover's hall this afternoon and evening. George Fruhan, a student at the University of Pennsylvania, is spending the holidays at the home of his parents on Hickory street.

GREEN RIDGE.

The Sabbath school of Asbury Methodist Episcopal church will hold their Christmas tree exercises this evening. Norman Parke is spending his Christmas vacation with his parents at Adams avenue and Green Ridge street.

PEA COAL $1.25 A TON DELIVERED

To South Side, central city and central Hyde Park. Address orders to C. B. Sharker, 1914 Cedar ave. Phone 6682.

AMUSEMENTS.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC, BURLINGER & BROS., LESSEES. H. K. LONG, Manager. One Week and Daily Matinees Commencing MONDAY, DECEMBER 25.

THE ELROY STOCK COMPANY Presenting XMAS MATINEE, FRIENDS XMAS NIGHT.

LAND OF THE MIDNIGHT SUN Admissions 10, 20 and 30 cents. Seats now on sale at Academy box office.

Gaiety Matinees Daily. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday December 25, 26 and 27.

American Gaiety Girls Burlesquers Extra Midnight Matinee Christmas Night, Gorgeous Christmas Tree and Oriental Dances.

lowing announcements appeared on the order of exercises for the day, found in each pew. The holiday entertainment for the children and young people of the Sunday school will be given in the chapel on Saturday evening, Dec. 30, at 7 o'clock.

This entertainment is free to all the teachers and scholars of the school. Their friends who come with them will be welcome on the payment of the small admission fee of 25 cents. The entertainment will be novel, interesting and of a high order of merit. The trustees have announced that all persons who desire to retain the pews which they have been occupying the past year at the same rental for the year to come are privileged to do so; and in case of no notice otherwise, it will be understood that such is the wish of the present occupants. Those who wish to change their seats should apply at once to A. C. Fuller or any member of the board of trustees. Seats available for rental can be secured on the evening of the congregational meeting. The congregational meeting is to be held on Monday evening, Jan. 8, at 7:30 in the chapel. At this meeting will be read valuable reports of the work of the year past. Every member of the church and congregation should be present. A year ago we had a most enjoyable meeting; the coming one should be every better. Though the reports should only outline the excellent work and progress of the several departments of the church for the year 1899, they cannot fail to be highly interesting and inspiring.

The Thirteenth ward Republican primaries will be held Saturday afternoon, Jan. 6, between the hours of 4 and 7, at the different polling places.

The funeral of Mrs. C. P. Slack was held from the Green Ridge Baptist church at 2 p. m. yesterday, the Rev. Mr. Lee officiating, assisted by Revs. Ford and Moore. Despite the very inclement weather the services were largely attended. The pallbearers were: A. E. Kiefer, B. T. Jayne, John S. Addyman

GATHERED IN SOUTH SCRANTON

CHRISTMAS OBSERVANCE AT ST. PAUL'S CHURCH.

Sunday School Exercises Conducted Last Night—Funeral of Daniel Maurer Held Yesterday and Largely Attended—Henry Weaver Run Down by a Horse—Twenty-fifth Wedding Anniversary Celebrated. Other News Notes and Personal Mention.

Special Christmas services were conducted last evening in St. Paul's Evangelical church by the Sunday school. Rev. Bailhorn, pastor of the church, preached an appropriate Christmas sermon and the programme was rendered under the direction of the organist, Edward Kroil. The church was well-filled and a general spirit of Christmas goodwill prevailed. The following is the programme rendered:

Organ selection.....Prof. Kroil Address.....Rev. Bailhorn Singing.....Congregation Prayer.....Rev. Bailhorn Bible text, Luke, 2:1-4.

RUN DOWN BY A HORSE.

Henry Weaver, of the Sanderson bill section, had a narrow escape from serious injury yesterday morning. He was walking along Cedar avenue when the wind blew his hat from his head and carried it out into the street, and in front of a passing wagon. In attempting to retrieve his headgear, Mr. Weaver was thrown to the ground by the horse and trampled upon.

A PLEASANT EVENT.

Twenty-five years ago last Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Adam Vockroth, of Pittston avenue, became man and wife, and the event was celebrated in fitting style on Saturday evening.

TOLD IN BRIEF.

The Welcome dancing class will conduct a social at Snover's hall this afternoon and evening. George Fruhan, a student at the University of Pennsylvania, is spending the holidays at the home of his parents on Hickory street.

GREEN RIDGE.

The Sabbath school of Asbury Methodist Episcopal church will hold their Christmas tree exercises this evening. Norman Parke is spending his Christmas vacation with his parents at Adams avenue and Green Ridge street.

PEA COAL $1.25 A TON DELIVERED

To South Side, central city and central Hyde Park. Address orders to C. B. Sharker, 1914 Cedar ave. Phone 6682.

FOR THE HOLIDAYS.

Diamonds, Diamonds

We are now showing the largest and most brilliant selection of Fine Cut Stone ever exhibited outside of the large cities. Having bought heavy before the rise, I am prepared to give my patrons real bargains, from the finest Watches, Watches.

We are offering the best in the world for the money. Gold Filled 15 Jeweled, Warranted Twenty Years, for $10. In Hunting or Open Face.

E. SCHIMPF, Jeweler

317 L-ckawanna Avenue.

Our Building Was Destroyed by Fire

But a Finer One Has Been Raised.

We have Passenger Elevator Service to every floor of our establishment.

Our Collection of Dolls

Is a wonder to behold. Toys of every variety. Come and see the Menagerie and Santa Claus. We invite you to examine us thoroughly

CANDY, ICE CREAM AND TOYS

Wholesale and Retail.

Sunday Schools and Churches at Special Prices

J.D. WILLIAMS & BRO.

AMUSEMENTS.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC, BURLINGER & BROS., LESSEES. H. K. LONG, Manager. One Week and Daily Matinees Commencing MONDAY, DECEMBER 25.

THE ELROY STOCK COMPANY Presenting XMAS MATINEE, FRIENDS XMAS NIGHT.

LAND OF THE MIDNIGHT SUN Admissions 10, 20 and 30 cents. Seats now on sale at Academy box office.

Gaiety Matinees Daily. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday December 25, 26 and 27.

American Gaiety Girls Burlesquers Extra Midnight Matinee Christmas Night, Gorgeous Christmas Tree and Oriental Dances.

lowing announcements appeared on the order of exercises for the day, found in each pew. The holiday entertainment for the children and young people of the Sunday school will be given in the chapel on Saturday evening, Dec. 30, at 7 o'clock.

This entertainment is free to all the teachers and scholars of the school. Their friends who come with them will be welcome on the payment of the small admission fee of 25 cents. The entertainment will be novel, interesting and of a high order of merit. The trustees have announced that all persons who desire to retain the pews which they have been occupying the past year at the same rental for the year to come are privileged to do so; and in case of no notice otherwise, it will be understood that such is the wish of the present occupants. Those who wish to change their seats should apply at once to A. C. Fuller or any member of the board of trustees. Seats available for rental can be secured on the evening of the congregational meeting. The congregational meeting is to be held on Monday evening, Jan. 8, at 7:30 in the chapel. At this meeting will be read valuable reports of the work of the year past. Every member of the church and congregation should be present. A year ago we had a most enjoyable meeting; the coming one should be every better. Though the reports should only outline the excellent work and progress of the several departments of the church for the year 1899, they cannot fail to be highly interesting and inspiring.

The Thirteenth ward Republican primaries will be held Saturday afternoon, Jan. 6, between the hours of 4 and 7, at the different polling places.

The funeral of Mrs. C. P. Slack was held from the Green Ridge Baptist church at 2 p. m. yesterday, the Rev. Mr. Lee officiating, assisted by Revs. Ford and Moore. Despite the very inclement weather the services were largely attended. The pallbearers were: A. E. Kiefer, B. T. Jayne, John S. Addyman

One Night only, Tuesday, Dec. 25. MR. DAVID HIGGINS and MISS GEORGIA WALDRON. Supported by a powerful company of players in the romantic Southern Play.

At Piney Ridge Produced under the personal direction of the author, Mr. Higgins. Prices—$1.00, 75c, 50c, 25c.

CONCERT By the COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY GLEE, MANDOLIN AND BANJO CLUBS Lyceum Theatre, Wednesday evening, December 27.

TICKETS, $1.00, 75c AND 50c On sale at L. R. Powell & Co., Washington avenue; Sanderson's Drug store; Washington and Spruce; Hotel Jermyn; Koemle's Drug store, Washington and Linden. Concert 8 o'clock.

Thursday Night, December 28th. The American Comedienne, Fanny Rice, And her own company in the latest farcical play, A Wonderful Woman. Prices—$1.00, 75c, 50c, 25c.

J. E. Hobbs, A. B. Lidstone and W. H. Trevorton. The flower bearers were: J. M. Atherton, S. E. Addyman, Nelson Matus and J. F. Hangl. Interment was made at Forest Hill cemetery.

Uwanta

Good cough remedy, take Du-fours French Tar. For Sale at

GEORGE W. JENKINS, 101 S. Main Avenue

A Wee Bargain Chapter for Hurried Readers.

Christmas Is Near

You're Busy.

We Won't Detain You.

Prices Are Now Cut

On Every Description of Holiday Goods.

That's All.

Open Every Evening This Week Till 9,30

There is a class of people

Who are injured by the use of coffee. Recently there has been placed in all the grocery stores a new preparation called GRAIN-O, made of pure grains, that takes the place of coffee. The most delicate stomach receives it without distress, and but few can tell it from coffee. It does not cost over 1c as much. Children may drink it with great benefit. 15c and 25c per package. Try it. Ask for GRAIN-O.

Globe Warehouse